

Flight Attendant Humour

Some real life instances of flight attendants trying to make the in-flight safety lecture a bit more interesting:

1. EasyJet has no assigned seating, you just sit where you wish. Passengers were apparently having a hard time choosing when a flight attendant announced "People, people, we're not picking out furniture here, find a seat and get in it!".
2. On a Continental Airlines flight with a very "senior" flight attendant crew, the pilot said, "Ladies and gentlemen, we've reached cruising altitude and will be turning down the cabin lights. This is for your comfort and to enhance the appearance of your flight attendants."
3. On landing the stewardess said, "Please be sure to take all your belongings. If you're going to leave anything, please be sure it's something we'd like to have."
4. "There may be 50 ways to leave your lover, but there are only 4 ways out of this aircraft."
5. "Thank you for flying Delta Business Express. We hope you enjoyed giving us your business as much as we enjoyed taking you for a ride."
6. As the plane landed at Ronald Reagan Airport, a lone voice came over the speaker "Whoa fella, WHOA!".
7. After a particularly rough landing in a thunderstorm at Memphis, a flight attendant on a Northwest flight announced, "Please take care when opening the overhead lockers because, after a landing like that sure as hell everything has shifted."
8. From a British Airways employee "Welcome to the BA flight 2345 to London Heathrow. To operate your seat belt, insert the metal tab in the buckle, and pull tight. It works like every other seat belt, and, if you don't know how to operate one, you probably should be out in public unsupervised."
9. "In the event of a sudden loss of cabin pressure, masks will descend from the ceiling. Stop screaming, grab the mask, and pull it over your face. If you have a small child travelling with you, secure your mask before assisting with theirs. If you are travelling with more than one child, pick your favourite."
10. "Weather at our destination is 23 degrees with some broken clouds, but we'll try and have them fixed before we arrive. Thank you and , remember, nobody loves you or your money more than EasyJet.”

11. “Your seat cushions can be used for flotation; and, in the event of a landing on water, please paddle to shore and take them with our compliments.”
12. “As you exit the aircraft, please take all your belongings with you. Anything left behind will be distributed equally among the flight attendants. Please do not leave any children or spouses.”
13. From the pilot during his welcome address, “EasyJet are pleased and proud to have some of the best flight attendants in the industry. Unfortunately none of them are on this flight.”
14. On a British Airways flight after a hard landing at Heathrow, the flight attendant came on the intercom and said, “That was quite a bump, and I know what you’re thinking, I’m here to tell you it wasn’t the airline’s fault, it wasn’t the pilot’s fault, it wasn’t the flight attendant’s fault, it was the asphalt.”
15. On a particularly windy day during the final approach, the Captain was really having to fight it. After an extremely hard landing, the Flight Attendant said, “Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to Newcastle International Airport. Please remain in your seats with your seat belt fastened while the Captain taxis what’s left of our aeroplane back to the terminal.”
16. After a less than perfect landing, the flight attendant came on to say, “Please remain in your seats with your seat belt fastened whilst Captain Kangaroo bounces us to the terminal.”
17. On landing the airline had a policy of the First Officer standing at the door while passengers exited, smile, and give them a “Thank you for flying with us”. After a particularly heavy landing he had some difficulty in looking the passengers in the eye, thinking that someone would have a smart comment. Finally, everyone had left except for a little old lady walking with a stick. She said, “Do you mind if I ask you a question?”. “Why, no Ma’am” said the pilot, “what is it?”. The little old lady said, “Did we land, or were we shot down?”.
18. After a real crusher of a landing at Gatwick, the attendant came on with, “Ladies and gentlemen, please remain in your seats until Captain Crash and his Crew have brought the aircraft to a screeching halt against the gate. And, once the smoke has cleared and the warning bells are silenced, we’ll open the door and you can pick your way through the wreckage to the terminal.”
19. Part of a flight attendants arrival announcement, “We’d like to thank you for flying with us today. And, next time you get the insane urge to go blasting through the skies in a pressurised metal tube, we hope you'll think of EasyJet."

20. Heard on a British Airways flight: "Ladies and gentlemen, if you wish to smoke, the smoking section of the aircraft is on the wing and, if you can light them, you can smoke them."
21. On the approach to Brussels on a Sabena flight, the captain came on and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, we hope you've enjoyed your flight. The weather at Brussels is a rather pleasant but hot 26 degrees." Unfortunately he forgot to switch off the intercom and carried on talking to his co-pilot saying "And what's more I'm looking forward to a cool beer and jumping into bed with a raunchy lady." One of the female flight attendants, realising what had happened ran from the rear of the aircraft towards the cabin to alert him. A passenger near the rear shouted after her, "Hang on darling, you've forgotten the cans of beer!"
